NYC Family Justice Centers
Free and confidential help for survivors of domestic and gender-based violence.

Domestic Violence • Family Violence • Elder Abuse
Dating Abuse • Stalking • Sexual Violence • Human Trafficking

• Call 311 or visit the New York City Family Justice Center (FJC) in the borough where you live (or one where you feel safest) to get connected.

• All Centers are open for in-person or remote services, Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

• No appointment is needed. See back side for contact information.

The Family Justice Centers can help you with:

• Planning for your safety.
• Counseling and mental health services to support emotional well-being for you and your children.
• Economic empowerment through financial literacy classes and financial coaches to help with credit repair and budgeting.
• Meeting with trained law enforcement, such as NYPD, NYC Sheriff’s Office, and District Attorney’s Offices.
• Applying for emergency shelter and exploring housing options.
• Information about public benefits and job training programs, including help with resume writing and interviewing skills.
• Legal consultations for orders of protection, custody, visitation, child support, divorce, housing, and immigration.  Legal representation is not guaranteed.
• Childcare for children while you receive services on-site.

All services are voluntary. You can choose the services that you want.
