

NYC Family Justice Centers

Free and confidential help for survivors of domestic and gender-based violence.

Domestic Violence • Family Violence • Elder Abuse
Dating Abuse • Stalking • Sexual Violence • Human Trafficking

- Call 311 or visit the New York City Family Justice Center (FJC) in the borough where you live (or one where you feel safest) to get connected.
- All Centers are open for in-person or remote services, Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- No appointment is needed. See back side for contact information.

The Family Justice Centers can help you with:

- Planning for your safety.
- Counseling and mental health services to support emotional well-being for you and your children.
- Economic empowerment through financial literacy classes and financial coaches to help with credit repair and budgeting.
- Meeting with trained law enforcement, such as NYPD, NYC Sheriff's Office, and District Attorney's Offices.

- Applying for emergency shelter and exploring housing options.
- Information about public benefits and job training programs, including help with resume writing and interviewing skills.
- Legal consultations for orders of protection, custody, visitation, child support, divorce, housing, and immigration.
   ** Legal representation is not guaranteed.
- Childcare for children while you receive services on-site.

All services are voluntary. You can choose the services that you want.
