NYC Emergency Management

Community Emergency Response Team (CERT)

New York City's Community Emergency Response Teams (CERT) are groups of community based volunteers who undergo an intensive basic training program that provides basic response skills. You must be 18 years or older and live or work in NYC. For more information and to contact CERT visit www.nyc.gov/CERT

Queens Public Library

Queens Public Library currently offers the service of Remote Printing. Files can be uploaded and the printouts can be picked up at any QPL branch that offers to-go service. You can print up to 20 black and white pages per day. Allow two days for your printing to be available. Files can be uploaded using Word, PDF or other commonly used file types Visit <http://queenslibrary.org> for more information

NYC Department of Sanitation

Electronic Recycling Events are Back !!

Tossing out electronics is bad for the environment and illegal. To increase options for residents looking to dispose of their e-waste, the NYC Department of Sanitation is offering special collections in partnership with the company ERI. If you are able to provide indoor storage space for recycle NYC bins, the NYC Department of Sanitation can help coordinate a pre-scheduled drop off event for residents to safely recycle electronics. Certain requirements apply - complete the form at www.on.nyc.gov/eventrequest

NYC Parks

Shape Up NYC is launching new outdoor walking groups in Queens. The walks are limited to 10 participants at a time, and face coverings and social distancing are required. Please visit their website for all the information. <https://www.nycgovparks.org/reg/shape-up-nyc>
