Public Contact

- Carol Donovan spoke about possible traffic concerns related to the City of Yes-Economic Opportunity.
- Thomas Kiernan spoke about the intersection of Ainsworth/Amboy Road/South Railroad. There are no safe sidewalks and crosswalks. Visibility could be better for vehicles coming from Keegans Lane. These concerns were reported to SI DOT.

Agenda

None

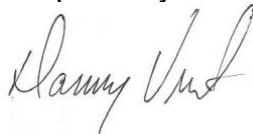

Old Business

- A board member is concerned about the paint used to paint bike and bus lanes. The paint is toxic, and there are other options available. He is concerned about microplastics ending up in the watershed.

New Business

- PS37, located on Corbin Avenue and Fairfield Street, was recently expanded. The teachers are parking on Miles Avenue along King Fischer Park. When spots fill up, they park on the other side of the street. Miles Avenue can no longer handle the two-way traffic with cars parked on both sides of the street.

Respectfully submitted,

Danny Venuto, Chair
