February 2014 Full Board Minutes

Meeting of Community Board #3 held on Tuesday, February 25, 2014 at 6:30pm at PS 124, 40 Division Street.

Public Session:
Andrew O’Connor (Reverend of St. Mary’s Church on Grand St.): Would like to propose a pedestrian food bridge crossing Delancey. I'd like to present a bridge that would be designed by Lucy Orta, an English artist. We need a bridge to serve as a unique icon but also for pedestrian safety.

Susan Stetzer: This will be on the April Transportation meeting

Teresa Pedroza: My granddaughter was killed crossing Delancey Street. I would love to have a pedestrian footbridge crossing Delancey.

Kristin Kvelhl and Emily Nichols (New York Public Library 135 2nd Ave. and 33 East Broadway): We are offering free English classes, homework help on Tuesdays and Saturdays, We have computer instruction classes for seniors in multiple languages.

Vaylateena Jones (LES Power Partnership): It is unbelievable that they want to privatize dialysis. There is a higher mortality rate among for-profit dialysis. This is something people need from day to day and should not be privatized. They've already privatized Bellvue and they are looking to privatize other hospitals.

Joyce Ravitz: Do they give a reason for privatization?
Jones: The reason is money – they claim it will save the hospital money.

We are having an event on March 24 against of gun violence. We are also having an event to promote disaster preparedness readiness.

Landmarking of 75 Essex St.

Speaking against the landmarking of 75 Essex St.
Sholom Eisner: I was not notified in time that there would be a request for landmarking. When I bought the building it was in very bad condition and the neighborhood was very bad. Business is not that great. The only thing I have of value is the property, and if we landmark, we will lose that too.

Jen Sasson: I’m not against the building, but landmarking the building would take away 60% of its value. Sholom has put his whole life into that building. Landmarking would stop any development of that building. He’s on a block that is going to be completely redone. The city is making money off this, and he should to.

Speaking in favor of landmarking of 75 Essex St.
Michele Gubler: This is a remarkably intact historic structure and is unique on the LES. This is the only historically significant building in the neighborhood near Essex Crossing. Sholom should be able to sell his air rights to make money. There are many examples of adaptive reuse.
Ann Johnson: What is the building being used for now.
Gubler: It is a retail sporting goods store.

Joyce Mendelsohn: I am the author of "The Lower East Side Remembered and Revisited". We must preserve buildings that reflect the core immigrant character of the neighborhood. The building will provide a reflection of the past, while Essex Crossing presents the future. It stood as a beacon of hope to the community when it was built. It is a prime candidate for being converted to condos.

Allison Siegel: I work for Bowery Boogie and am a 6th generation Lower East Sider. The building is unique, and every immigrant that could not afford healthcare probably went to the dispensary building. These buildings are all of our ancestry and heritage.

Elissa Sampson: I am an urban geographer and resident of the Lower East Side. I believe strongly that when we look at the past, we are thinking about how we can inspire us in the future. My grandparents had no money when they came to the Lower East Side, and these people got my family medicine. This was one of the 12 free milk dispensing stations that gave pasteurized milk.
Marcia Haddad-Ikonomopoulos: Curator of Kehila Kelosha Janina Synagogue and Museum and this Board helped us obtain landmark status for our building. In this building, you can feel its history. We cannot lose this building.

Ayo Harrington: How long has the owner owned the building?

Eileen Kim: I am a board member of the LES Preservation Initiative. I am reciting a letter we wrote to the chair of the NYC Landmark’s Commission from Richard Moses, the . This building has many unique architectural features, and it exemplifies early attempts to aid the poor. The building is within the LES historic district.

New York Rising Presentation: We are working on small business and housing programs outside of the city. Community Develop Block Grant Funds will be available for communities that come up with plans for recovery. New York City is divided into committees, each of which is eligible for parcels of money.

The community reconstruction program is being supported by a planning firm called HR&A. They are charged with coming up with exciting projects to be more resilient. They have had several public meetings to get feedback on how to be more resilient.

The outcome of this work will be a narrative report. There are about 15 projects in the reconstruction plan and about $25million to allocate. If you attend our workshops, you’ll have an opportunity to speak to those in power. There are commercial and residency resiliency programs. With 95% non-pervious surfaces, we are looking at ways for the ground to better absorb water. We are looking at wetland protection. We are looking at an East River flood barrier. After March 31, we will move into the implementation phase. This means shovels will be in the ground starting April. This is a great opportunity for this community.

We recognize that $25m is not a lot of money. The projects will fill gaps are serve as launching-off points. There are eight categories and $3m for each category.

One of the categories is Natural and Cultural Resources such as parks and museums.

Johnson: There’s a federal law that prevents coop and condo owners from receiving federal emergency funds. Are you doing anything to overturn this law?
Representative: Yes. We have a direct relationship with FEMA. This is an issue in a lot of the NYC community.

Lisa Kaplan: I work for the housing division of the Governor’s office storm recovery program. The city programs can provide funds that the federal government cannot.

Pedroza: They just finished refurbishing the East River promenade?
Representative: This is a community-based process. The committee is not advocating for one proposal over another. This came up, and there are many proposals out there. There is Rebuild by Design proposal – a federal design competition that could bring federal dollars to the area. There is the Blueway, which was an city effort to vision the East River waterfront.

Jones: One of the things that was originally on the plan was a back-up generator for Downtown Hospital. Is that still part of the plan?
Representative: The community resource center and CBO capacity building program would be a program to which a hospital could bring this concern.

Jones: Some churches gave out food immediately. FEMA gave a presentation saying that people need to be prepared for 72 hours to take care of themselves.
Representative: Eligible non-profit can access Community Development Block Grant Recovery money.

Michele: For days during Sandy, people were stuck in their apartments without electricity or water. Would Mitchell-Lama buildings be able to purchase a generator?
Representative: I cannot speak to eligibility.

Public Officials:
Mayor Bill de Blasio: Not in attendance
Public Advocate Letitia James: Not in attendance

Comptroller Scott Stringer: Not in attendance

Borough President Gale Brewer, Adrin Bonilla: The interview process will be a role-playing interview. The community boards organized a service cabinet meeting around Vision Zero. We are doing a lot around UPK and the kind of capacity that exists for the slots we need. We are working to make sure the plan involves community boards.

Congressmember Carolyn Maloney, Victor Montesinos: Not in attendance

Congressmember Nydia Velazquez, Iris Quinones: Congress compromised on SNAP (food stamp) program. We will work to full restore this system. We are trying to secure visas for the travel of the family of a pregnant woman who was killed by a snowplow.

Assembly Speaker Sheldon Silver, Zach Bommer: We pushed to have the escalator fixed at the East Broadway station.

Linda Jones: We would like to thank you for getting the MTA to fix the escalator at the East Broadway station. The station has never been renovated, and we would like it to be renovated.

Lisa Kaplan: It is frustrating that we don’t have the ability to change our own speed limit. Is there anything the Speaker could do to speed this through (pun intended).

Bommer: The Speaker has a great relationship with the Mayor and will hopefully work something out.

Susan Scheer: We need more local control over speed and traffic-light cameras

Bommer: The Speaker has met with advocates on this.

Assemblymember Deborah J. Glick, Sarah Malloy-Good: Not in attendance

Assemblymember Brian Kavanagh, Marcela Medina: The Assemblymember has introduced a bill that would allow municipalities to increase their minimum wage by 25% of the minimum wage.

Richard Ropiak: There was a news article today about a woman in your district who was being forced to move out of her Section 8 apartment.

State Senator Daniel L. Squadron, Mauricio Pazmino: Mayor Di Blasio ended the NYCHA supplemental payment of NYPD patrolling the developments. The East Broadway station escalator is now working. We will be holding our annual community convention on April 27 at the Seward Park High School. The purpose of the community convention is for our office to hear out the community’s concern.

Johnson: If you want to get something done, you have to scream and yell. It’s my understanding that NYHCA will have to come up with its own funds to pay for police services to the tune of $400million.

Pazmino: I will have to look into that.

Gigi Li: The Mayor put a significant amount of money into the NYPD budget so there would be a balance.

Jones: I have never seen a uniform police officer near Laguardia, Rutgers and Vladak houses. We need uniform police officers when people are getting out of the train and when kids are there.

Pedroza: I live in the projects, and when I was a kid, the police were always there. Once we started paying the police, they were not there.

Morris Faitelewicz: I was chair of Public Safety and Transportation for many years. When they were doing the merger of the police. There are fewer police than there were before. The police eliminated the police stands in the developments and now have PSAs. Today, the precinct commander is in charge of the crime that occurs in the developments. That money should be going to other things in like maintenance.

State Senator Brad M. Hoylman, Maya Kurien: Extel Development is planning a development on 14th between A and B. We are advocating for another entrance on Ave. A. to the 1st Ave. stop on the L train. The senator introduced the Port Authority Open Government Act, which would require them to respond to FOIL request. Currently the Port Authority is exempt from FOIL requests. We are co-sponsoring a bill that will make all liquor license application and stipulation information online.

Stetzer: When the SLA bill passes, will there be funding attached?

Kurien: I will let you know.

Jones: Please advocate for the state of healthcare – we need to look at the elimination of services. Bellvue has an OR on the first floor. I think advocate needs to happen now, in case something closes. Staff will not go back to something that has closed. Bellvue is a great service – and the 10002 population is the largest zip code of hospital.

Johnson: I’ve been asking for a train station on Ave. B and C.

Kurien: Let’s get them to agree to build a second entrance to the 1st Ave stop.

Harrington: I also would like Ave. B and C to have a subway stop.
Councilmember Margaret Chin, Patricia Olan: The City Council is voting for earned sick time legislation expansion. We introduced a bill that would require landlords to pay the relocation cost for tenants forced to leave their apartments. Councilmember Chin is the chair of the Aging Committee. We just had a hearing on elder abuse.

Councilmember Rosie Mendez, Rosemarie Diaz: Councilmember supports stopping the NYCHA MOU. The Mayor will now be giving money to NYCHA, but NYCHA will still be giving $20m to the city for services. This is part of the city giving back a little bit. We do not know what’s happening with the in-fill program. We are part of the alliance to save public housing.

Board Chairperson’s Report:
Chairperson Gigi Li
Our Lunar New Year part is tonight. Please give Ricky Leung $10. April 1 new members will be joining the board. We will send a letter to public members at this time asking if they would like to continue their service. Board chairs will be given the attendance records of members. We will disband the SLA Policy Task Force, the Outreach Taskforce and we will fold in the Waterfront Taskforce into the Park Committee. There will be a NY Rising meeting at Confucius Plaza this Sunday. There will be another meeting for federal money on March 6.

District Manager’s Report:
District Manager Susan Setzer
May 6 CBs 1, 2 and 3 will be meeting will have a joint meeting on May 6 with SLA Chair Dennis Rosen. The meeting will focus on questions regarding common problems among the committees.

We have made a change to the SLA questionnaires that are posted on the website: we have added a number of stipulations so that the committee will not need to ask these questions and community groups will see stipulations before meeting.

DOCKNYC and the Waterfront Alliance will be making a presentation about visioning Pier 36.

We have a committee chair responsibility handbook and this is now posted on the website under Member Resources.

We have worked with Con Ed regarding stray voltage issues and they have created better signage to alert people. Con Ed will be at our Transportation Committee meeting. The cause of stray voltage on Clinton Street that killed a dog has not been found.

Extol will be on our April agenda to discuss plans for the former Pathmark site.
Johnson: We should have the cross street in the vote sheet for SLA applications.
Harrington: There is an item missing in the March agenda – I requested Transportation Committee review the addition of a speed bump at 4th street.

Committee Reports:

Executive Committee
(executive committee votes due to Parks Committee meeting cancelled due to snow.)
1. East River Esplanade Signage suggested resolution:
   VOTE: Title: Community Board 3 support for signage plans for East River Esplanade.

   WHEREAS, NYCEDC presented designs for the logo and signage for the entirety of the East River Esplanade to Manhattan Community 3 board on February 13, 2014;

   Whereas, proposed designs are in keeping with existing DPR co-branding;

   Whereas, new signage and logo will provide clear and much needed direction and information to esplanade visitors;

   THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that Manhattan Community Board 3 approves and supports the proposed plans.

2. Friends of the Lower East Side would like to seek CB 3 support for landmarks designation of the Eastern Dispensary, 75 Essex Street
   VOTE: To refer landmarking consideration for 75 Essex Street back to the Landmarks Subcommittee of the Parks Committee.

3. 9 Orchard St restoration, amended C of A
   VOTE: Title: Community Board 3 Resolution Requesting Final Design before Approval for the Jarmulowsky Bank Certificate of Appropriateness

   WHEREAS, the Jarmulowsky Bank is an architecturally and historically significant 12-story building designed by the firm of Rouse and Goldstone opened as a bank in 1912; and

   WHEREAS, the Jarmulowsky Bank was designated a NYC Landmark in 2009 and restoration work is proceeding on the façade; and

   WHEREAS, this second Certificate of Appropriateness Application for the Jarmulowsky Bank primarily addresses replication of the lost spire; and

   WHEREAS, the tempioetto when viewed from a distance was an instantly recognizable point of reference; and

   WHEREAS, the community has long wished for return of the lost tempioetto; and

   WHEREAS, the tempioetto is to be replicated by referencing the original architectural drawings as well as historic photos; and

   WHEREAS, the rooftop changes would allow access to the roof and to the tempioetto and would be minimally visible from the street; and

   WHEREAS, the adaptive reuse of the building will be as a hotel, making a marquee marking the hotel entrance on Orchard Street desirable; and

   WHEREAS, the proposed marquee is planned to be constructed of steel and glass, with details remaining to be finalized; so

   THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, the CB 3 enthusiastically applauds the owners of the Jarmulowsky Bank for undertaking replacement of the tempioetto and approves the other proposed alterations, except for the marquee. While we have no conceptual problem with adding a modest marquee to the building, the board awaits a complete design before approving it.

4. 116 2nd Avenue, Café Mocha, C of A
   VOTE: Title: Community Board 3 Resolution Requesting Further Work on Café Mocha Application for Certificate of Approval

   Whereas there was no exact image of the door to be installed at Café Mocha,
Therefore be it resolved the owner was to return to LPC staff to ask them what type of French door would be appropriate for installation at Café Mocha and will return to the Landmarks Subcommittee the following month if necessary to have CB 3 approval for the installation of the proposed French doors.

Li: Please note that the Executive Committee agenda included the Parks Committee items.

Joyce Ravitz: It seems strange that we are being asked to vote on something we haven't seen.

Faitelewicz: We need to give the person regarding the 75 Essex landmarking more of an opportunity to speak because he was told at the Landmarks Subcommittee he could bring more support to the Parks Committee.

David Crane: Was the building owner not aware of the Landmarks Subcommittee?

Carolyn Ratcliffe: Mr. Eisner was aware that the committee was meeting, but it is not our responsibility to notify building owners. Whoever is applying to have a building landmarked is responsible for notifying the building owner. Morris came to the meeting to say that Mr. Eisner had not been notified.

Harrington: I don't think Morris can speak for the owner. The indication that the owner was aware is not good enough.

Crane: I move should refer this to the Subcommittee. It deserves a hearing at the community level, especially because it is not time sensitive. If there doubt that he was notified, we should send it back to committee.

David Adams: Second

Ravitz: Calls the question

Linda Jones: This has already been voted on by the Subcommittee and the Executive Committee. Motion Passes

Ricky Leung: The owners should pay attention to the date, time and location of the Subcommittee and Committee meeting.

Johnson: It is incumbent on the community board to have us inform someone if their building is going to be before the board for landmarking.

Stetzer: But we have no other information. Only the person seeking the landmarking knows who the owner is. If they give us the information, we can get in touch with them.

Ravitz: We should deal with this in the Subcommittee.

Transportation & Public Safety and Environment Committee

1. DOT: pedestrian safety & traffic improvements at the intersection of Bowery / Delancey

VOTE: Title: Community Board 3 Resolution to Approve the Installation of Pedestrian Safety and Traffic Improvements at the Intersection of Delancey St and the Bowery

WHEREAS, DOT has installed various pedestrian safety improvements at the corner of Delancey St and the Bowery. In the fall of 2008, as part of a Senior Safety Project, a pedestrian island was installed in the crosswalk midway across the Bowery on the south side of Delancey St. In the summer of 2012, a neckdown was installed on the southeast corner to shorten the length of the crosswalk across Delancey St. DOT is now recommending additional safety improvements, including changes to the geometry of lanes of moving traffic; and

WHEREAS, there are many conflicts between vehicular movements through the intersection of Delancey St and the Bowery, which are causing the pedestrian safety challenges:
   ▪ Delancey is a big feeder to and from the Williamsburg Bridge and is also used for access to the Holland Tunnel and the Manhattan Bridge.
   ▪ Delancey St is a commercial corridor surrounded by dense residential development. Near this intersection, there is access to subways (J/Z) and the M103 bus.
   ▪ The pedestrian island has been an issue for the heavy left turn volume off Delancey St into southbound Bowery, especially when a bus is present at the existing stop.
   ▪ Southbound traffic moving along the Bowery through the intersection is also heavy, and it often blocked by vehicles that are attempting a left turn off of the Bowery onto Delancey St.
   ▪ The southbound traffic is often back up through the intersection of Spring St and the Bowery; and

WHEREAS, in a presentation to the CB 3 Transportation Committee, DOT proposed the following pedestrian safety & traffic improvements at the intersection of Delancey St and the. DOT would like to install these improvements in the summer of 2014:
Add a third lane of through traffic for southbound Bowery for the block north and south, which will ease intersection congestion.

- There would be a dedicated left turn bay extending most of the short block from the north between Spring and Delancey St, allowing 2 full lanes going through southbound.
- There would be another through lane south of Delancey St, which should relieve problems when the M103 is at the curb.

- Reshape the pedestrian island in the middle of the Bowery south of Delancey St to allow easier left turns off of Delancey St.
- Expand the neckdown on the southeast corner of the intersection.
- Construct a new pedestrian island in the middle of the Bowery south of Spring St.
- Expand the No Standing Anytime zone on the north side of Delancey St to dedicate a full 130-foot right-turn lane from westbound Delancey St onto northbound Bowery.
- Add an 11 second split-leading pedestrian phase to the right-turn signal (a "yellow flashing arrow saying to yield") to give pedestrians a head start on the north side of Delancey St crossing the Bowery.

THEREFORE, CB 3 Manhattan approves of the installation of the pedestrian safety & traffic improvements at the intersection of Delancey St and the Bowery, as presented to the CB 3 Transportation Committee.

VOTE: Title: Community Board 3 Resolution to Provide a Letter of Support to Association of Latino Business Owners and Residents' "Business Attraction Grant"

That the Board will write a letter to support Association of Latino Business Owners and Residents' application for FY2015 Neighborhood Development Grant.

February 10, 2014

NYC Dept. of Small Business Services
Neighborhood Development Division
110 William Street
New York, NY 10038

To Whom it May Concern:

Community Board 3 Manhattan is writing in support of the Association of Latino Business Owners and Residents’ (ALBOR) application for a FY2015 Neighborhood Development Grant from the NYC Department of Small Business Services. Community Board 3 is dedicated to economic development throughout our district, and we welcome ALBOR’s efforts to revitalize commercial corridors in our community.

Our community has experienced serious threats to the local economy in recent years, including increased vacancies, shrinking retail diversity, rising rents, increasing competition from national chains and big box retailers, and a lack of resources for local business owners. These issues extend to former commercial hubs throughout our District, including the Clinton Street corridor between East Houston Street and Delancey Street in the Lower East Side.

ALBOR presented their plans for a Neighborhood Development Grant to our Economic Development Committee on February 5, 2014, and we support their 2-phased approach to diversify the offering of goods and services along Clinton Street to better meet local needs. We understand that they plan to retain a market consultant to identify missing retail services along the corridor, and will then mobilize local and professional service providers to strategically attract those missing contributors. Community Board 3 has worked to help provide locally needed goods and services for several years, and we believe that ALBOR’s approach, funded by a Neighborhood Development Grant, will further that effort.

ALBOR has sponsored previous efforts to revitalize the Clinton Street commercial corridor, and we welcome the expansion of these efforts that will be possible with a Neighborhood Development Grant. We believe that ALBOR’s extensive network in the community will assist them in implementing their plan.
We fully support ALBOR in their pursuit of a FY 2015 Neighborhood Development Grant. We hope that their continued efforts to revitalize our local economy will be successful, and that their commitment to the community will inspire others to action.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
